Industries Ends;
A Goose Story

Apparently the threat (reported recently in this column) to make a court test of Act 9, which guarantees new Arkansas industries tax exemption during their early years, has ended in a compromise.

Reports from Little Rock, where the rural Pulaski County School District made the threat against Act 9 because some tax-exempt plants wouldn't make a "gift" to the district, now say that Mayor George Wimberly of Little Rock arranged a compromise and the angry school folks called off their legal dogs.

The crux of the matter is that some of the exempt industries are making voluntary contributions but others refuse to do so. Mayor Wimberly settled matters by saying that all gift funds received from such plants as do pay will be turned over to the Pulaski county collector and will be distributed just as tax money is—with Little Rock waiving its share.

A generous move—and it relieves communities all over Arkansas, which had guaranteed exemption to new plants only to have a legal doubt crop up.

The Star has a strict rule against publishing reprints not of its own choosing—dictated by the space problem of trying to fit local news, advertising, pictures, and 30,000 words of telegraph news into an average of 10 pages daily.

But the same guy who makes the rules can break them—and the editor is a sucker for a goose story. Mrs. J. W. Smith, 206 E. 16th St., Hope, sent me a tear-sheet of the Memphis Commercial Appeal for Sunday, May 7, with a dispatch about Canada Geese. As I have four Canada geese, I have to preserve behind my house I was in no position to reject the item. Here it is:

GOLFERS RESPECT
"BLESSED EVENT"
Chicago Daily News Service

CHICAGO, May 6—Mother Goose's story has a happy beginning, at least, at Golden Acres Country Club in suburban Schaumburg.

Mom—a wild Canada goose—just hatched four pretty goslings alongside No. 2 fairway.

She sat on the eggs for 29 days while father goose stood guard and golfers tiptoeed around the maternity ward.

"I've been passing out cigars because I almost feel like the father," said George Sloan, owner of the club.

Mother and father goose apparently were winging their way northward to Canada in early spring when they spied Sloan's 27-hole course and decided to settle in.

Sloan is so friendly with them, he now calls them Sam and Milly.

"I expect they'll stick around here until fall, then fly south again," said Sloan.

Vietnamese
Program O.K.
Says Laird

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Nixon's new military initiatives in Indochina do not signify the failure of Vietnamization, Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird says.

"It signifies violations of the Demilitarized Zone" and a "change in operation in the conduct of the war" because of a massive North Vietnamese invasion of South Vietnam, Laird said in a speech Thursday.

Laird said Nixon's Vietnamization policy has made possible the withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam and the cutting of U.S. costs and casualties.

Laird called the foreign and military policy followed by the Nixon administration a "strategy of realistic deterrents."

Editor The Star: Because of the articles that were carried in the April 26th and May 10th publications of the Hope Star directed to the observation of the community and to the President of the Board of Education of Hope Public Schools, District I-A by the Hope City Police and Ministerial Alliance (white) in which the imposition of character smears against the community's black citizens as well as the questioning of the integrity of the school district's administration were an issue.

Our community is indeed one in which up until now we all can take pride as black and white citizens living together and working together for the progressive welfare of all concerned. It is to frequently true, however, that the masses of people in a community who have for many decades enjoyed peace, harmony, tranquility and serenity together will allow a vocal minority, exercising the function of little minds and narrow concepts of the affects and provisions of a complex society inflame the passions, good will and emotional stability of the community's citizens into appropriate response to provocation of character smears and denial of reasonable exercise of freedom. These little minority groups can always be identified with qualities or selfish gain seekers and hypocritical do-gooders.

As black citizens of Hope, we want the city police and the white ministerial alliance group to observe the following:

(1) The black citizens of Hope do not encourage immoral practices whatsoever in any manner. This is not to indicate, however, that we deny the occurrences of immoral practices in our community, and we believe that immoral practices occur in every community. We believe that our concept of social decency is as profound as that of any other groups including those of the Hope City Police and the Hope's Ministerial Alliance.

(2) Black people have no decent place in which to assemble to accommodate a very large social group in order to have party-get-togethers involving our own race only. This is of course due to economic segregation and discrimination which have so limited the black man's total resources here in America. It appears very logically that our critics should have known this since they and their ancestry are the architects of America's Societal System and civil justice applications.

(3) The Cotillion Club of Hope is a respectable organization of our community, with high standards and ideal for the betterment of humanity. Among other functions this club promotes scholarship awareness among our youth, motivates cooperation in civic affairs as United Funds, Voter Registration, Girls State Camp, Christmas Projects and blood donations, etc. For 13 years the Cotillion Club has made use of the Yerger High School gymnasium and very recently the Yerger Junior High. Where were your Hope Police Force and Hope's Ministerial Alliance,

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, reporting to the Senate after a three-week trip to the Orient, said he is convinced China will not pressure North Vietnam into ending the war or releasing U.S. prisoners of war.

Ace-Mig Air Circus

By HOLGER JENSEN
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The sky over Hanoi Wednesday was "like a big circus ... plenty of MIGs for everyone," said one of the Vietnam war's first two aces today.

"They jumped us, not the other way around," said Lt. Randy Cunningham, 30, of San Diego, Calif. "I heard my wingman say 'break' and a MIG came by so close I could see the eyes of the pilot. There were MIGs all over the place, a shooting gallery."

"If you were chasing one MIG and he got away, it wasn't very long before another one got in front of you."

Cunningham and his radar operator, Lt. (j.g.) William Driscoll, 24, of Framingham, Mass., shot down three of the North Vietnamese jets Wednesday, giving them a total of five and earning for them the first "ace" designation of the war. Flying an F4 Phantom jet, they got their first MIG Jan. 19 and their second last Monday.

"My next ones will be tomorrow," said Cunningham, who was flown to Saigon with other Navy pilots from the carrier Constellation for a news conference.

Wednesday was "quite a day," said Cunningham. "We became Red River Valley rats (for flying strikes over Hanoi), we became aces and we were shot down by a missile."

He said only one of the North Vietnamese pilots he shot down ejected, and "he had a good chute. He didn't wave or anything when he went down, though."

He said he counted 12 MIG17s, two MIG19s and four MIG21s in the dogfight Wednesday.

"After my first kill, I started to get out of there when my executive officer came by with a MIG on his tail," Cunningham reported. "He was putting BB's over the exec's canopy, so I got rid of him. Then a third one flashed by, and I put a missile up his tail."

"In each kill, like all hills, there was a mistake made by the enemy pilot. But don't get me wrong. I saw mistakes made by F4s as well. It's just that the enemy pilots didn't capitalize on them."

"The feeling of being an ace isn't as great as that after the first kill. It was luck, but at least you know you have the capability. If the MIGs had been lucky with their cannon, they would be the ones sitting in front of a conference like this and I'd be a POW."

The missile which crippled Cunningham's and Driscoll's Phantom exploded "quite a way off," the pilot said. "I've had them explode a lot closer than that. But in 30 seconds I

Showers and thundershowers were expected to break out in western Arkansas this afternoon as a cold front that was located this morning across Oklahoma nears the state.

Thundershowers in Oklahoma earlier today caused heavy rainfall. Flash flooding occurred in the Oklahoma City area as more than an inch of rain fell in less than one hour.

Houston City Police notified the Hempstead County Sheriff's office of the approximate location of the manger and members of the sheriff's department conducted the search.

According to Sheriff Henry Sinyard, the ring was stolen from a home in Houston, Texas a week ago.

Houston police are holding James Lee Brooks, 23, of Houston in connection with the robbery.

Brooks has been charged with felony theft.

Slain Man
Not Suspect
Police Sought

LEWISVILLE, Ark. (AP) — A spokesman in the sheriff's office here said this morning that a man shot to death Thursday night by Lafayette County authorities was not the man being sought in connection with a shooting incident that left five Shreveport, La., residents wounded.

A spokesman said the man who was killed was identified as Beverly Clark Jr., about 40. Shreveport authorities said the man being sought in the Shreveport shooting was Walter James Wesley, 25, of Shreveport.

"He fit the description perfectly," said a spokesman at Lewisville. "The clothes and everything."

The deputy said Lafayette County authorities received word from Shreveport officials that a man wanted in connection with the shootings was on a freight train bound for Lewisville.

Authorities said the train was stopped and searched near Bradley and that a man was found hiding in one of the box-cars.

"The deputy told him to raise his hands and he did, but then he dropped them," the spokesman said. "The deputy fired one shot and told him to raise his hands again. He did, but he dropped them again and the deputy shot him."

The spokesman said Clark was identified by a social security card in his pocket. He said Clark's only weapon was a pocketknife in his pocket.

The spokesman said Clark had spent about 15 years of his life in prison.

"He had a long rap sheet starting in 1941," the spokesman said. "The last time he was picked up was in Shreveport on April 27."

U.S. Army Base in Germany Bombed

By DAVID MINTHORN
Associated Press Writer

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The U.S. Army says it has no indication who bombed one of its headquarters in Frankfurt Thursday night, killing a lieutenant colonel and injuring 13 persons. Frankfurt police declined to comment on speculation that the explosions were a protest against U.S. policies in Vietnam.

"Anyone could have planted the bombs," said a military policeman on duty when they went off about 7 p.m., Spec. 4 Ted Bloyd of Houston, Tex. "There was a tour group going into the building at the time, and anyone could have carried them in a suitcase."

Frankfurt Police Chief Knut Mueller said he saw no reason to call off a demonstration today against the Vietnam war organized by the Communist party. But he said the protesters would be kept away from U.S. installations and he had called in auxiliaries to help control them.

The strongest of the three bombs collapsed the ceiling between the two stories of an officers' club and blew out the windows across the front of the building. The colonel was killed by a fragment that slammed into his neck as he stood outside the club.

He was not identified pending notification of his family.

Most of the injured—who included one American woman and two German women employed by the club—were inside the club when the blasts went off.

Most of the injured were cut by glass shards from the shattered windows. One underwent surgery.

A second bomb went off in a cafeteria and a third exploded inside the entrance to the main office building, a seven-story structure that has been a U.S. Army headquarters since World War II.

The Army said six MP's were in a guardroom off the entrance hall, but none was seriously injured.

It was the first such bombing of an American installation in the 27 years since World War II that U.S. troops have been stationed in West Germany. But American businesses, the U.S. consulate in Frankfurt and the Judge Julius J. Hoffman sentenced Bobby G. Seale, chairman of the Black Panther party, to four years on 16 charges of contempt after he severed Seale's case and declared a mistrial six weeks after the trial began in September 1970.

Hoffman waited until Feb. 14, 1970, the day the jury adjourned to consider a verdict, before he cited the other seven defendants and two lawyers for contempt.

Five defendants were convicted Feb. 18, 1970, or crossing state lines to incite a riot at the time of the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago. They were acquitted of conspiracy to do so. Two other defendants were acquitted of all charges, and the government did not retry Seale on the conspiracy charges.

The appeal of the riot convictions is still pending.

UN Shuts Off Tourists

Arrests continued to mount today as protests against America's new Vietnam policy moved through a fourth day.

The demonstrations centered mainly on college campuses as they have since beginning Monday night with President Nixon's announcement of plans to mine North Vietnamese ports. More than 1,000 persons have been arrested so far.

As the protests were renewed this morning, police arrested 44 more people blocking access to the Institute for Defense Analysis building at Princeton University in New Jersey. Most of those seized were students.

A crowd of 300 surged across the Cornell University campus at Ithaca, N.Y., early in the morning and smashed about 130 windows. Police drove them back with tear gas after a window was broken in a bank just off the campus.

In Lawrence, Kan., a crowd estimated at from 500 to 1,000 walked about 10 miles around the University of Kansas campus but was turned away from the downtown area by police, who arrested 27. Some windows were broken in the military sciences building.

A demonstration at Ohio State University in Columbus ended with 76 arrests and some 30 people injured, including 18 policemen. Windows were broken in the ROTC building and several shops bordering the campus.

About 1,000 protesters, mostly high school pupils, chanted anti-war slogans on the steps of the Capitol in Washington.

Ferrel Heady, president of the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque, called off a state of emergency after a campus demonstration broke up about 1:30 a.m.

It was quiet this morning at the United Nations headquarters in New York, which was closed to tourists because of what officials termed "the rising tide of demonstrations."

Reports from across the country showed significant anti-war activity in at least 23 states and the District of Columbia. Violence appeared to ebb somewhat, however, and though there were more than 500 arrests most demonstrations were peaceful.

Despite the demonstrations, a poll conducted for the American Broadcasting Co. and aired on a special Vietnam program Thursday night indicated a majority of Americans support the president's decision.

The survey based on 991 telephone interviews by Lieberman Research, Inc., found 59 per cent agreed with the mining, 28 per cent disagreed and 13 per cent had no opinion.

The United Nations was closed following a demonstration by 300 people and two incidents in which a group of protesters chained themselves inside the Security Council.

He could give no immediate figures on the number of homes washed away or damaged.

A man about 30 who refused to identify himself told how he, his wife, 2-year-old daughter, sister and two dogs got out. "All of a sudden, water started pouring through the air conditioner. We didn't know what to expect."

Cloudburst
Comes Down
From HillsBy LEE JONES
Associated Press Writer

NEW BRAUNFELS, Tex. (AP) — A cloudburst striking New Braunfels and the hills around it sent a wall of water sweeping through portions of the two early today. Five persons were known drowned and 20 to 25 unaccounted for.

Police Chief Royce Couch said 3,000 persons fled their homes, with 1,000 taking refuge in the National Guard Armory.

The floodwater began to recede about dawn.

New Braunfels sits in a valley formed by the Comal and Guadalupe rivers which converge in the city of nearly 20,000.

The main business section is 40 to 50 feet above the normal level of the rivers and suffered no damage.

The area flooded is made up largely of residences and unoccupied land with some small industries.

Sheriff Water Fellers said the floodwaters came in very quickly.

"It was fast," he said. "We had one area up here I know that had 10 inches of rain in one and a half hours."

The sheriff said of the flood, "I would say it was a wall of water and rising at the same time."

He could give no immediate figures on the number of homes washed away or damaged.

A man about 30 who refused to identify himself told how he, his wife, 2-year-old daughter, sister and two dogs got out.

"All of a sudden, water started pouring through the air conditioner. We didn't know what to expect."

They're as different as night and day," says Larry Collins, zoologist who cares for the two gift pandas from China. "She's an extrovert and he's an introvert."

Ling-Ling, the female, likes to charge her keepers whenever they enter her cage at National Zoo, Collins said. Hsing-Hsing, the male, just retreats quietly into a corner.

"He's kinda shy while she's the rough-and-ready type," he said.

Thousands of persons have trekked through the panda house since the rare animals arrived almost a month ago from Peking.

However, many visitors fail to glimpse the pandas because they spend much of their time napping in darkened cubicles out of sight of spectators.

And, though they live in adjoining cages, the 18-month-old pandas have never seen one another.

The tractable Hsing-Hsing keeps a clean cage, said Collins, but rambunctious Ling-Ling likes to make a mess.

"She tears bamboo out of the pots so that we have to replace it every few days," Collins said. "We never had to replace Hsing-Hsing's."

Jury to Hear Diary of Angela Davis

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A judge has ruled that jurors can hear an edited version of a controversial love diary from Angela Davis to George Jackson which the prosecution considers crucial to its case.

Prosecutor Albert Harris Jr. edited the 18-page diary to seven pages, but Superior Court Judge Richard E. Arnason said Thursday that version was unacceptable.

Instead, the judge in Miss Davis' murder-conspiracy-kidnapping trial further trimmed the document—sources said to 2½ pages—and told attorneys this version would be ruled admissible "if it was offered."

Attorneys for both sides were given copies. The prosecution made no immediate move to offer the new version as evidence, and further arguments were expected when the trial resumes Monday.

The diary begins July 8, 1971—the day of Miss Davis' first fact-to-face meeting with Jackson at the Marin County jail.

It was found in Jackson's cell after his death Aug. 21, 1971, in an alleged breakout attempt from San Quentin Prison. Two honor inmates and three guards also died in that incident.

Defense attorneys had opposed putting any part of the diary in evidence, claiming it was written a year after the events Miss Davis is charged with and is irrelevant to the charges.

after 13 years of usage? Why have you just awoken to sepiu moral dignity and criminal detection? According to your reaction standards for our City Police, it is like having a crime, if it is, in progress in open civilization and it takes our efficient officers 13 years to detect it. For our Hope's Ministerial Alliance its like having an open sin in your midst, if it is, and it took you 13 years to condemn it.

(4) Now, why would you wait 13 years to react to this situation. We cannot answer it, but we can on the basis of evidence attribute this delay either to ignorance on your part of all of the facts involved or that while Yerger was all black you didn't care what happened. In any case the facts are very clear, that if anything is wrong basically, it is the total circumstances under which it all started. (13 years ago, in a segregated school system, and segregated and discriminated society). Therefore, you are placing the blame of society's traditional behavioral practices upon the shoulders of the President of the School Board and condemning only one act out of 13 which occurred under identical circumstances in the black community. It should be emphasized here that this dance under questioning involved adults only, and the School Administrator's only were involved in accordance to a practice of having permitted the community to use school facilities which practice was constant for a period of a lifetime for most citizens in Hope.

Since the City Police and Hope Ministerial Alliance personnel are in disagreement with this traditional practice and since our pattern of segregated community dictates a climate of this likeness, we would like that you spell out guide lines that we should follow as patrons of a segregated society in order that 13 years or more from now you will not wake up late and ask for a detailed explanation of what happened while they slept.

10 Votes May Be Required For Nominee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., casting himself in the role of a compromise candidate, said Thursday he expected that more than three and probably nine or 10 votes will be required at the Democratic National Convention to choose a presidential nominee.

Mills named a campaign manager, Patrick T. McGahan Jr., of Atlantic City, N. J., to line up delegate votes for the presidential nomination for him at the convention.

"I feel, as I felt from the beginning, that the convention will be deadlocked and will have to look elsewhere than the three or four leading candidates for the presidential nominee," Mills said at a news conference.

Mills said his campaign staff, headed by McGahan, will be seeking pledges not only from uncommitted delegates, but also from some who would be willing to back Mills after the first vote or two.

Mills said the Democrats need a candidate who can end divisiveness and help heal wounds inflicted in the primaries and "I believe I could be that man."

Mills said he would compete in no more primaries mainly because of his duties as chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and that he had done only minimum campaigning in the past.

As for his chances to obtain the nomination, Mills said, "I've said it's a long shot. It is."

But he said he thinks he has a good chance, if nominated, to defeat President Nixon.

Alaska Pipeline Still Delayed

By STAN BENJAMIN Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three environmental groups asked the federal district court here today to block the proposed issuance of federal permits for a trans-Alaska oil pipeline.

They contended that oil companies and the State of Alaska have, together, requested rights-of-way far exceeding the legal permit powers of the secretary of the Interior.

Secretary of Interior Rogers C. B. Morton announced Thursday his decision, after two years of review, to issue rights-of-way permits for construction of the controversial pipeline.

The project has been stalled since 1970 by a preliminary injunction granted by federal Judge George L. Hart to the Wilderness Society, Friends of the Earth, and Environmental Defense Fund.

The three groups had also requested a permanent injunction and that request is still pending.

In today's motion, they asked Hart for a summary judgment on one aspect of their injunction request, leaving others aside for the moment.

Housing Scandal Continues

By G. C. THELEN Jr. Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Veterans Administration continues to guarantee GI home loans for a New York mortgage company that was indicted for fraud and barred from Federal Housing Administration programs six weeks ago.

Pending completion of a VA investigation of the firm, low-downpayment mortgages guaranteed by the VA are available to Eastern Service Corp., Hempstead, N.Y., said Edward A. Echols, director of the VA loan guarantee service.

Eastern was indicted by a federal grand jury March 29 in an alleged multimillion-dollar, New York City housing fraud scheme. The company and its top officers were charged with submitting false credit reports to the FHA that allegedly enabled speculators to sell low-income families decrepit, overpriced houses they couldn't afford to maintain.

FHA's subsequent debarment of Eastern as an approved lender did not automatically apply to the government's companion mortgage program for veterans, Echols said, because the VA does not approve mortgage companies, only the applications they submit.

But the VA would have stopped doing business with Eastern if the FHA's disciplinary action had been suspension rather than debarment, Echols said. He conceded there was no substantive difference between the two penalties. Each removes mortgage companies from participation in FHA programs.

"We are examining all of the cases Eastern submitted to us in recent years," Echols said in an interview. "The results of this investigation are not in and there is no basis for suspension from the program."

The FHA and VA programs are virtually identical in providing low-downpayment, government-backed mortgages, except one is for veterans only.

Mine Fire Survivors 'Had Enough'

By JACK MAYNE

Associated Press Writer KELLOGG, Idaho (AP) — "I've had enough," said Ron Flory, a 28-year-old silver miner who never has known another trade.

"I'm taking Gov. Cecil Andrus' offer to relocate and be retrained for another job."

Flory and his buddy, Tom Wilkinson, 29, are the only men rescued among 93 miners trapped by fire, gas and smoke when flames erupted in the Sunshine mine on May 2. Flory and Wilkinson were found one week later and the governor then made his offer.

Rescue crews found 44 bodies in a 24-hour period from Wednesday to Thursday night, bringing the death toll to 91. Another 108 of the original 201 working in the mile-deep Sunshine complex got out quickly when the fire struck.

Wilkinson has said he probably still would be a miner. But Flory was adamant.

Some of his despair was reflected throughout Kellogg's 7,000 population when the last seven bodies were discovered Thursday night.

Worried people at the mine entrance dispersed. What had been an area of intense activity and intense concern suddenly turned into desolation, barely illuminated by the dim lights of the deserted mine buildings.

Ships Veer Away From Blockade

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon reported today that several merchant ships heading for North Vietnamese ports have apparently changed course because of the American mine blockade.

Officials refused to give any specifics or say where these ships are now headed. But it appears likely that some may have chosen instead to go to Chinese ports where their cargoes could be moved to North Vietnam by land routes.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedheim would say only that "several other ships" from the group of 25 that were headed for North Vietnam at the time the U.S. mines were laid Monday "may have diverted."

Thirteen of the 25 ships were under Soviet flag.

Friedheim also disclosed that two, and possibly three, additional merchant vessels left Haiphong harbor before the U.S. mines became activated at 7 a.m. EDT Thursday. These are in addition to the five vessels which Friedheim reported Thursday as having left the harbor.

Friedheim gave no reason for the delayed report, adding only that the Pentagon was just updating its information.

The three additional ships were identified as one Soviet and one Somali and apparently a second Soviet vessel, but this was not confirmed.

Enemy Tanks Smash Into An Loc

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops and tanks smashed into An Loc again today despite saturation bombing by 70 U.S. B52s that rained more than 1,700 tons of explosives on the devastated provincial capital 60 miles north of Saigon. It was the war's heaviest concentration of B52s.

The U.S. Command reported one American adviser killed, a second wounded and two small Air Force spotter planes shot down in action around An Loc and Chon Thanh, a district capital 15 miles to the south. Two of the four crewmen aboard the planes were missing.

The North Vietnamese appeared determined to turn An Loc into another Quang Tri, the northernmost provincial capital that fell May 1 after similar heavy assaults.

An Loc, under siege since April 7, is 85 per cent destroyed, but its capture by the North Vietnamese would be another blow to prestige of the Saigon and President Nixon's Vietnamization program.

The North Vietnamese hit An Loc with the heaviest artillery bombardment of the war Thursday, firing more than 7,000 rounds and following up with tank and infantry attacks.

The North Vietnamese resumed their heavy shelling and ground assaults from all sides shortly before 9 a.m. today. At least five tanks smashed into the northern end of the town, and enemy infantrymen fought their way into the western sector.

Government forces were reported to have retaken one block in the northeastern part of town.

Field reports indicated the situation was confusing, with the defense lines rapidly changing.

Fighting also erupted closer to Saigon.

The South Vietnamese command claimed 93 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed in two clashes just south of the Saigon-Phnom Penh highway 25 to 35 miles northwest of the South Vietnamese capital. Eleven South Vietnamese were reported killed and nine wounded.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Summer programming plans, like just about everything else in television, are a little late this year.

For the past few weeks, all three national networks have been reporting in glowing detail their expectations for programming next September, and one network has even announced shows for the Christmas holidays.

However, NBC only this week got around to revealing that Bobby Darrin will replace Dean Martin's Show reruns with a variety show for about six weeks during the latter part of the summer.

CBS this week decided to cut out reruns of mid-season replacement, "Me and the Chimp" the end of this month and fill the time period until September with repeats—third time around, actually—of "My World and Welcome to it." This series, based on James Thurber's drawings and sense of humor, was originally run and rerun on NBC.

Summer time is, of course, traditionally rerun time in television, but in recent seasons summer has become as long as winter. Most series turned out no more than 22 or 24 new episodes, and some were cut back to 18. Now it appears there are fewer than usual summer programs, fewer newcomers given exposure.

The answer to the questions of why all this is happening is an old one: economics. It has been a rough year financially for television, which lost not only its cigaret advertisers but also revenues from three and one-half hours of prime evening time weekly.

The Federal Communications Commission ordered the time returned to local stations in the 50 top markets, but the edict affected most stations of the nation.

Television programs are increasing expensive to produce. Almost any hour-long program costs at least $200,000, and most half hour shows have budgets of around $100,000.

Summer, it seems, is the time to recoup, or at least try to.

There was a time, however, when competition was so fierce that a program or a series originally shown on one network would never be seen on another. No more, as CBS's acquisition of "My World and Welcome to it" indicates.

There are other evidences of the pinch. NBC has already started showing reruns of elderly "Bonanza" episodes on Tuesday nights under the title of "Ponderosa," and, at the same time, is showing reruns of more recent "Bonanza" episodes in the program's familiar Sunday night spot.

Plants Thrive in Apartments

By Sheila & Allan Swenson

If you're a modern cliff dweller with an itchy green thumb let yourself go natural this year. You can make your topside home blooming fun.

Every kind of plant from petunias to pine trees are being grown successfully in containers. They can be moved wherever you want them, indoors or out to a balcony or sky-high patio. Best of all, organic gardening principles also can be applied to container plants anywhere.

Your containers should be strong, able to stand continual moisture, provided with adequate drainage to avoid soggy roots. Wooden boxes, barrel halves, redwood tubs, ceramic containers all can be utilized.

Container-grown plants tend to dry out faster than those in the ground. Plan to water more frequently. Always place a layer of pebbles, broken clay pot pieces or gravel in the bottom of the planter to avoid wet roots.

Buy or mix your own planting material. It should be a sandy loam, porous and yet moisture-retentive. Adding leaf mold from humus or a peat-compost mixture will usually provide the best condition.

Because you will be watering more frequently, fertilizer in your soil mixture may be washed or leached away. Regular top dressing with a compost humus mulch helps restore nutrients.

This helps prevent evaporation and also adds natural organic elements to the soil and improves its structure. To maintain fertility, however, use regular applications of liquid nutrients, preferably from natural combination fertilizers. These are now widely available. A list of organic fertilizer suppliers is contained in the new book, "The Practical Book of Organic Gardening," by Sheila and Allan Swenson (Award Books) due this summer.

Check for insects on and under plant leaves periodically. For a few plants, wash away the pests or remove them by hand.

When flowers, petunias, marigolds, or other annuals you select begin blooming, remember that most annuals will be more productive when you pick off the blooms. Plants want to set seeds, so they'll keep producing more flowers for blooming fun all season.

HELEN HELP US!

That Nude Dude Centerfold!

Remember the girly magazine hassle in your column? Uptight dames, furious about their husbands' nudie-watching, said they'd display pictures of naked males on their coffee tables, except the very idea "made them sick." A few said this kind of revenge would backfire, as friends would figure they were dingy. What WOMAN, they asked, would look at an unclothed man?

Boy, am I laughing! If the little ladies don't care for manly curves (with a lot of skin), how come you couldn't find an April Cosmopolitan anywhere in town three hours after it hit the stands?—Because the gals snapped 'em up to drool over that centerfold.

So next, I imagine, you'll be getting letters from irate husbands whose wives go for nude dudes. (Should we call them "boygie magazines"?)

Right?—BURT, BUT NOT REYNOLDS

DEAR BURT:

Right and right! They've already started. Read on: DEAR HELEN:

My wife has taped the centerfold of Burt Reynolds above our bed, and she snickers every time I get undressed. Says she'll take it down when I throw away my Varga calendar.

What's got into women?—FOR BASIC MALE RIGHTS

DEAR FBMR:

Equal "sights"—that's what! Ask your wife if she'll settle for a Burt Reynolds calendar next year.—HELEN

P.S. A local barbershop plays no favorites. Pinned on the wall next to the reclining Reynolds was a Playmate of the Month. Below—this note:

"Fellas preferring the male nude, go to Chari No. 1. Ferdie will do your hair."—H.

DEAR HELEN:

About the woman who says she

"doesn't really mind if her gentleman friend always ends up raping her when they're alone in her apartment—but she wishes she could talk to him more," the problem truly is communication:

Consenting adults, married or not, will no doubt agree with that wonderful quote, "The difference between rape and rapture is SALESMANSHIP!"—MURPH

DEAR HELEN:

Here is another story of teenage harassment.

My son was issued two tickets for violations with his snowmobile, even though at the time he was home watching TV. Naturally, he pleaded "not guilty." He had to post $100 for this privilege. When he asked the judge why, he was put in jail for contempt of court.

Four days later, after paying a lawyer $150, he was released. At the hearing over the two tickets (lawyer's fee an additional $150) both tickets were cancelled because he was not guilty.

The way I see it is that a neighbor, who is a cop, is down on our son and he put the other cop up to issuing the tickets. Proving this, of course, would cost more than we've got.

This was several months ago, and I'm still burning—and still broke. Is this justice?—MRS. R.L.

DEAR MRS.L.:

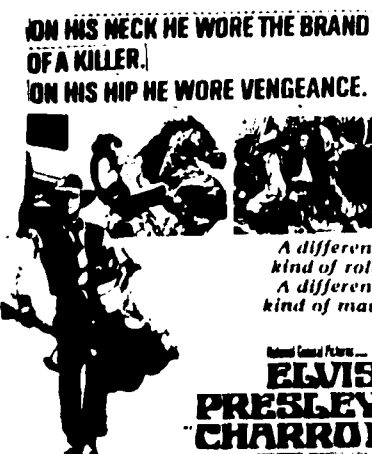

If this is the straight goods, then I'd say it's another chilling reminder that a man is guilty until proven innocent. Justice? She went thataway!—H.

This column is dedicated to family living so if you're having bad trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Write to Helen Bottel in care of this newspaper.

Bruins Take Stanley Cup

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Boston Bruins carted the Stanley Cup home for the second time in three years today with Bobby Orr & Co. the toast of Boston once again after bitter defeat in 1971.

Eliminated in the opening round of defense of the National Hockey League's most coveted prize, the Bruins made amends by regaining the Stanley Cup with a 3-0 victory over the New York Rangers Thursday night in the sixth game of the best-of-seven series.

The burly Bruins were a tense, determined group as they invaded New York for the final game of the season in New York. They left the champagne at home, chilled but unopened after bowing 3-2 in the fifth game Tuesday night in Boston.

Instead of the bubbly stuff, they celebrated with beer and soft drinks in a jammed dressing room. However, they knew the champagne, and the winner's prize of $15,000 per player, was waiting.

Goalie Gerry Cheevers was tremendous in the shutout. Wayne Cashman, an unheralded but tough wing, scored two goals. The Bruins forechecked and backchecked. But everyone talked of Orr, the 24-year-old super star who did everything while playing with a bad left knee in the series.

"You want to know what turned this game around?" asked Ranger captain Vic Hadfield. "The same thing that turned the whole thing around—Bobby Orr. The two clubs were even in faceoffs, even in power plays, even in penalty killing, even in everything—except they had Orr."

"That Orr, he's fantastic, just terrific," said New York's Brad Park, the NHL's No. 2 defenseman who engaged his Boston rival in a fight in the fourth game.

Orr, an overwhelming choice as winner of the Conn Smythe Award as the most valuable player in the playoffs, scored the first Boston goal on a power play in the first period.

Then he drew a misconduct penalty for a few words directed at Referee Art Skov and sat out 10 minutes. He returned just in time to help the Bruins when the Rangers had a two-man advantage in the second period. Then his rifle shot from the point enabled Cashman to tip in the second goal in the third period.

"New York has a heck of a hockey club, but we felt all along we would win," Orr said after he was first in line for the traditional hand-shaking ceremony among rival players.

Johnny Bucyk, 37, the Bruins' elder statesman, had the honor of skating around displaying the Stanley Cup after the mid-ice presentation of NHL President Clarence Campbell.

"It was a greater thrill the first time, but it still feels nice," Bucyk said. "Of course, it also means bottled beer instead of draft this summer."

Coach Tom Johnson, the Hall of Fame defenseman who starred for Stanley Cup champions while with the Montreal Canadiens, relaxed for the first time since the series started.

'No Joy In Frisco Tonight'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Willie Mays' teammates were emotional, his wife was relieved and Mayor Joseph Alioto was gloomily poetic about the San Francisco Giants' trade of the super slugger to the New York Mets.

"There's no joy in Frisco tonight. The mighty Stoneham has struck out," said Alioto, in his own version of "Casey at the Bat." He referred to Giants' owner Horace Stoneham, who traded Mays Thursday for minor league pitcher Charlie Williams and an unannounced sum of cash.

"How can they do this to him?" asked teammate Jimmy Rosario when told of the trade.

"We were conditioned, I believe to the possibility of Willie being traded," said Bobby Bonds. "Yet I kept hoping, oh, I kept hoping so very hard, that it would never happen. He's more than a great player. He's a friend of mine."

Frank Healy remarked, "He's the greatest player who ever played this game and now he's going to be with someone else."

Mays Begins New Career With New York Mets

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "It pleases me," said Willie Mays, "that people still want me."

With those modest words Thursday, the baseball great began a "new career" at age 41 with the New York Mets.

The San Francisco wonder player, acquired in a much-publicized deal, responded with enthusiasm at the idea of playing in New York.

"I love baseball and I love this town," said the second best home run hitter in history. "I'm looking forward to playing—I'm not looking forward to embarrassing myself. I'm glad the Mets didn't worry about how old I was."

"That tells me something," said Mays. "It tells me that maybe I've got something left."

For awhile, it looked as if the Mets weren't going to get the great center fielder at all. News of the prospective deal broke last week, but it was reportedly cooled when the Giants' asked too much.

Interested in one of the Mets' starting pitchers, the Giants settled Thursday for minor league right-hander Charlie Williams and an undisclosed amount of cash. The deal was

Smith In British Semifinals

BOURNEMOUTH, England (AP) — Stan Smith, the U.S. Open champion from Pasadena, Calif., isn't at his best but he's hot and he's in the semifinals of the British Hard Courts Tennis Championships.

Smith, undergoing heat treatment for a strained right arm, was off form Thursday but battled his way into the semifinals with a 6-4, 9-8 victory over Jürgen Fassbender of West Germany.

Smith was to meet France's Pierre Barthes in the semifinals. Barthes beat South Africa's Peter Cramer 6-8, 6-4, 6-3.

Jim Connors of Belleville, Ill., the only other American in the quarter-finals, lost to Bob Hewitt of South Africa, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1. Hewitt was to play Ilie Nastase of Romania, 4-6, 6-3, 6-2 conqueror of Ion Tiriac of Romania.

In women's play, Sharon Walsh of San Rafael, Calif., the only American in the quarter-finals eliminated Gail Chanfreau of France 6-2, 2-6, 6-3.

Yastrezemski Out for Month

BOSTON (AP) — Carl Yastrezemski will be lost to the Boston Red Sox for about a month, team physician Dr. Thomas Tierney said Thursday.

Tierney said X-rays taken at Santa Maria Hospital in Cambridge showed Yastrezemski a small tear in a right knee ligament when he collided with California Angels' catcher Art Kusner in Anaheim Tuesday night.

No surgery is necessary, but Tierney said Yastrezemski will be on crutches for about ten days and will probably be out of the lineup for a month.

Mae Mays, who married the record-holding centerfielder less than a year ago, said from her Atherton, Calif., home: "I'm very happy it's over. It's been a rather difficult week with the uncertainty of it all."

"When he first found out he might be traded," Mrs. Mays said, "I think he was instinctively hurt, but then he sat down and thought it over."

"I think he's very happy with the deal. He understands that the move could possibly benefit the Giants, the Mets and himself."

San Franciscans expressed dismay at the trade.

County Supervisor Robert Gonzales, whose resolution opposing the Mays trade was adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week, said: "I feel they got rid of a San Francisco landmark for a minor leaguer, and I think 'the public be damned' is the Giants' attitude."

When he came into the office Thursday, San Francisco attorney Dick Greene said "My secretary was weeping. She told me 'They did it. They traded Willie Mays.'" quickly closed Thursday morning after Mays was personally brought in on the talks.

"We wanted to make sure that Willie would be happy in New York," said M. Donald Grant, chairman of the Mets' board of directors.

"As soon as Willie decides that he doesn't want to play anymore," said Grant, "he has a three-year contract from that day on with the Mets' organization. He'll probably be a coach, but he could do other things."

New York Manager Yogi Berra acknowledged that Mays had lost some steam out of his throwing arm, but still could play centerfield with the best because "he knows all the hitters in this league. He knows where to play them."

"I'm sure he'll help our team. Maybe some of his knowledge will rub off on the other 24 guys. He should make a good example for our players to follow."

Berra doesn't expect Mays to revert to his power-hitting form of old which helped him collect 646 career homers, second only to Babe Ruth.

Aussie Captures Share of Lead in $125,000 Open

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — It was something like a scene from out of the past, a bad dream of sorts.

"I know you all thought it was headed for Crampton's lake," quipped Bruce Crampton. "Let's all get together and make it official and put a plaque up there."

"I tell everyone in Australia that I'm the only Australian who has a lake in Texas named after him."

Crampton flirted with his lake on the final hole Thursday but salvaged a par and captured a share of the first-round lead in the $125,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

Tie For Lead In Maumelle Open

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Strong winds subsided here Thursday and four players fashioned three-under-par 69s to own a piece of the first-round lead in the $25,000 Maumelle Open golf tournament.

Only nine players bettered par in Wednesday's Pro-Am because of the howling winds, but Thursday, as the wind eased, 21 players scored 72 or better.

Tied for the lead were Jim Lynch of Pittsburgh, Pa., Joel Goldstrand of Worthington, Minn., Rod Curl of Redding, Calif., and Bob Stanton of Broadwater Beach, Miss.

Only a stroke back were Mike Higgins of Houston, Tex., Greg Powers of Nashville, Tenn., and Ross Randall of Alameda, Calif.

Mike Mitchell of Texarkana, Tex., Steve Reid of Orlando, Fla., Jerry Abbott of Tulsa, Okla., Jerry Barrier of Aransas Pass, Tex., and Robert Nichols of Fairfield Glade, Tenn., finished with 71s. Nine others were bunched at even par 72 on the long Maumelle Country Club course.

Last year's champ, Tom Ulozas of Edison, N. J., recorded a 73, but said afterward, "I'm still in it."

Richard Crawford of Little Rock, a sentimental favorite among the gallery, had one of the wierdest rounds of the day. He had seven birdies, two double bogeys and three bogeys for his 72.

The 126-man field will be cut to the top 50 players plus ties after today's round in the 72-hole tournament.

Dodgers Spark 6-4 Victory In Thursday Doubleheader

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
No sooner do the New York Mets get Willie Mays than Willie is the star of the show at Shea Stadium ... Willie Crawford, that is.

The Los Angeles outfielder lashed a double, triple and his fifth home run to spark the Dodgers to a 6-4 victory in the after-dark portion of a day-night doubleheader after the Mets took the opener 2-1.

Elsewhere on a lighter-than-usual major league schedule, the Mays-less San Francisco Giants trimmed Montreal 6-2, Philadelphia edged San Diego 6-5 in 12 innings, St. Louis nipped Houston 4-3, Texas downed Baltimore 3-1 and Boston whipped California 8-1.

Willie—Mays, that is—arrived at Shea during the first game as Tom Seaver, with ninth-inning relief from Danny Frisella and backed by Ed Kranepool's home run, was turning back the Dodgers.

Willie—Crawford, that is—was already at the park and in the process of an 0-for-4 afternoon.

Things got better at night. Willie—Davis, that is—got the Dodgers started with a fourth-inning homer off Jim McAndrew, his fifth of the year, and Crawford slammed his fifth one out later.

Tommy John protected the lead until the seventh, when the Dodgers pushed across four more runs to offset at a late New York rally.

The Giants battered Steve Renko and Tom Walker for six runs on 10 hits in the first three innings and trounced the Expos behind Ron Bryant.

Alan Gallagher singled to start a three-run outburst in the second inning and a two-run uprising in the third. Bryant stroked an RBI double in addition to winning his first game.

Greg Luzinski's single with two out in the 12th enabled the Phillies to defeat the Padres and climb within one-half game of the Mets in the National League East. Luzinski also belted a run-scoring triple in the fifth and scored on one of Don Money's four hits. Nate Colbert and John Jeter homered for San Diego.

Jerry Reuss, traded from St. Louis to Houston on opening day, was leading his former teammates 3-1 entering the ninth inning when the Cardinals erupted for three runs to pull out the victory.

Ted Simmons and Donn Clendenon opened with singles and both runners scored when Reuss fielded Ted Sizemore's bunt and heaved the ball past first. Sizemore wound up at third and scored the winning run on a single by ex-Astro Marty Martinez.

Little League Winners

In Little League play last night at K-Park Hope Auto won over Barry's by a score of 4 to 2 in the first game and the second game was won by Lion's beating Greening-Ellis 13 to 1.

Rufus Herndon was the pitcher for Hope Auto. Barry's used Wayne East on the mound. Leading all hitters for the winners was Scott Rowland collecting one double. Danny Williams was the leading hitter for the losers getting one hit.

In the second game of the evening Johnny Vickers and Preston Walker were the pitchers for Lion's, and Duane Cobb, Ricky Damon, and Arthur Brown saw mound duty for Greening-Ellis. Hitter for the winners were Chris Cagle going three for four, and the best hitter for the losers was Steve Jones getting one hit. Britt Henry collected the second home run of the season.

Friday night games will be James Mtr. Co. vs Walker Refrigerator at 6:30 p.m. and Sheriff's Department vs CBC in the second game of the night.

Championship Playoff Tonight

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — The Indiana Pacers have a business meeting with the New York Nets tonight—the third game of the American Basketball Association championship playoff series.

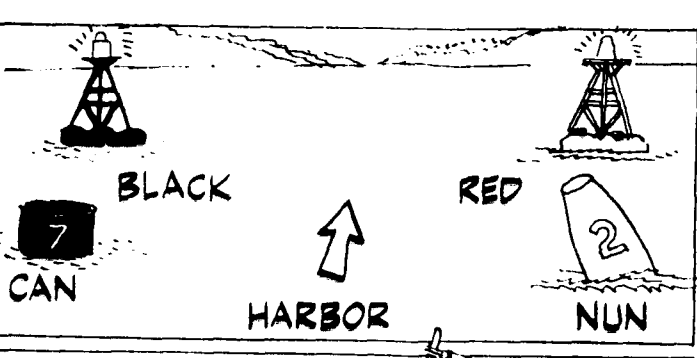

"They took the home court advantage away from us," the Pacers' Roger Brown said after the Nets had tied the best-of-seven series 1-1 by winning the second of two games in Indianapolis.

"We could have been in such good shape. Now we really have to get down to business," Brown said.

Guard John Roche and center Billy Paulitz of the Nets were expected to be ready for tonight's game although they both had to leave Thursday's practice early because of intestinal flu.

safe boating for young skippers

Channels are generally marked by red buoys with even numbers and black buoys with odd numbers. Some of these are lighted at night. When you go out a channel, the red buoys should be on your left and the black ones on your right. When RETURNING to the harbor the RED buoys should be on your RIGHT. Remember, RED RIGHT RETURNING.

Danger Markers

There are certain buoys, flags and markers that the prudent seaman stays away from. He knows they mean DANGER. These include the Red and White "Skin Diver" flag and most other red, orange or yellow flags, buoys or markers, except red channel markers.

Qualifying Runs for Indy 500 Set

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—With qualifications for the May 27 Indianapolis 500-mile auto race set to start Saturday, three drivers have zoomed around the 2½-mile Speedway at speeds of 190 miles an hour or better.

The latest driver to surpass 190 was Peter Revson, last year's pole position winner and owner of the official Speedway record, 178.696 m.p.h. Revson, Redondo Beach, Calif., pushed his McLaren Team car to an unofficial 191.123 Thursday.

Bobby Unser and Gary Bettenhausen earlier posted laps in excess of 190. Unser drove his Dan Gurney Eagle at 194.721 and Bettenhausen a Roger Penske McLaren at 191.017.

Saturday is the first of four days of qualifications to determine the 33 starters for the May 27 race. The 10-mile trials continue Sunday and May 20 and 21.

Lee Bratton, 38, Coldwater, Mich., washed out a perfect Speedway safety record for the month when he lost control Thursday coming out of the fourth turn. The car crashed into the outside wall twice but he escaped injury. President of a cement plant and a veteran of the sprint car circuit, Bratton had a top lap Thursday of 173.344.

"THE STOPPER" is what these two Massachusetts Institute of Technology students call the bicycle lock they developed. It is a steel alloy similar to ship armor and resisted Campus Patrol attempts at cutting, filing and smashing. Shopper's Guide Best Seller

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — A little mimeographed booklet that reveals long suppressed facts that some consider scandalous and others just shocking is becoming one of the most talked about publications of the year.

It's "A Shopper's Guide to Life Insurance." And it's publisher is the Pennsylvania Insurance Department.

Interest in the guide is growing spontaneously from ordinary consumers who for the first time want to see insurers rated on the relative price of their policies, with all the confusion wiped away.

They learn, for example, that prices vary as much as 170 per cent. They learn that a 20-year-old male might pay $2.24 or $6.10 per thousand of straight life coverage, depending upon the company.

"We know that as the public gets the facts it will shop more intelligently for insurance," says Dr. Herbert Denenberg, the commissioner, a 42-year-old former professor, a whirlwind who feels he has the people on his side and is making American government work.

Many insurers have been angered by the report, which can be used anywhere in the country. "If the companies are promoting junk and garbage, we'll tell the people," Denenberg says, adding: "This will force the insurance companies to lower premiums and improve service."

Are they promoting junk? "Not the whole industry, but it is a common technique to design policies to fool the public," he replies. "The character of the insurance business is to deliberately design policies that can't be compared."

What does the industry think of this? "The reaction is predictable," says Denenberg. "Those who look good think the report is brilliant. Others think it isn't so brilliant."

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Misery Caused By Misinformation

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb — My daughter had a very unhappy love affair and contracted gonorrhea. This happened 25 years ago. What I would like to know is, can she work in a hospital or restaurant? We know this kind of work requires a blood test. Would the test show that she has had this? She wouldn't want anyone to know that she had this problem.

She had a good doctor and was checked afterward for a long time. Thank God she had the good sense to go straight to the doctor. She has asked me several times about the blood test problem and I have never been able to give her an answer.

Dear Reader—Your letter is a beautiful testimony to the human misery that can be caused by misinformation or lack of information. I am sorry to say that you and your daughter have been needlessly concerned for nearly 25 years. The type of blood test that is used for various types of employment is for syphilis and is unrelated to gonorrhea.

As you state, your daughter was wise to go straight to the physician and if she was treated adequately at the time of the illness, there would be no evidence whatsoever that she had gonorrhea. This can be a serious disease but if it is treated immediately, there is minimal risk of residual difficulty.

WIN AT BRIDGE

The 'Gambling Three N.T.'

Four spades is almost an ironclad contract and five actually makes, but it seems that the other team was also gambling three no-trump ad-dicts.

South opened the same three no-trump. West opened the three of clubs. East played the ace and returned the eight.

West looked at South's jack for a long time and finally came up with the super-brilliant play of the deuce. This is the sort of mistake only a great expert can make. Ordinary players can't get quite such violent brainstorms.

It didn't hurt South. He gasped and then proceeded to take the rest of the tricks by taking the spade finesse.

(NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

♥+CARD Sense♦♦♦

The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
1 ♠	1 ♠	1 ♠	1 ♠
Pass	2 ♠	Pass	2 N.T.
Pass	3 ♠	Pass	3 N.T.
Dble	Redble	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

♠ A654 ♥ K632 ♦ Q107 ♣ 54

What do you do now?

A—Pass. And don't be unhappy. You are likely to make this contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Again your partner opens one club. This time you hold:

♠ KJ54 ♥ K876 ♦ 3

Evangelistic Magazines Thrive as Never Before

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — While religious periodicals generally are in a slump, the personally oriented, evangelistic magazines are thriving as never before.
"They're riding a groundswell of conservative religious feeling in this country," says Norm Fohrer, of La Canada, Calif., executive secretary of the Evangelistic Press Association.
They're also sharpening their style, both in appearance and content, to compete for the attention of modern readers.
"The key to our success is professionalism," Gary D. Foster, business manager of Moody Monthly, told the association's annual meeting here

Signs of the brighter, catchier approach was in abundant evidence in the publications on display here.

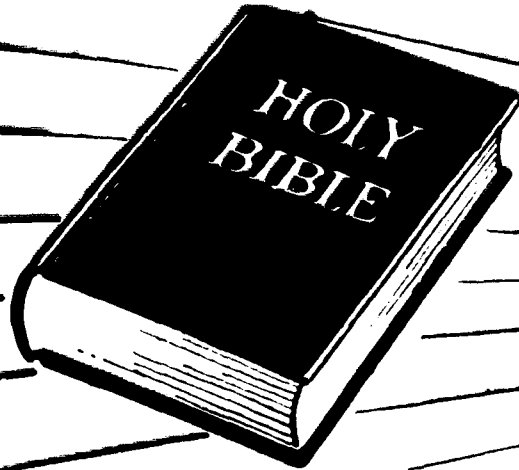

"The Couples Game, a 19-page section on sex without hangups," read a caption, alongside a sparkling-eyed girl, on the multicolored front cover of Campus Life, put out by Youth for Christ International.
Its senior editor, Dean Merrill, of Wheaton, Ill., said religious magazines for youth today must compete with such secular organs as Playboy, Mad and Seventeen in "the battle of the coffee table and night stand."

"For too long, we've pretended religion was in a separate league with no one else around and that people would be interested whether or not we looked good or read good," he said. "Baloney! Religion has no captive audience. Unless we've got a product that grabs interest, we're wasting our time."

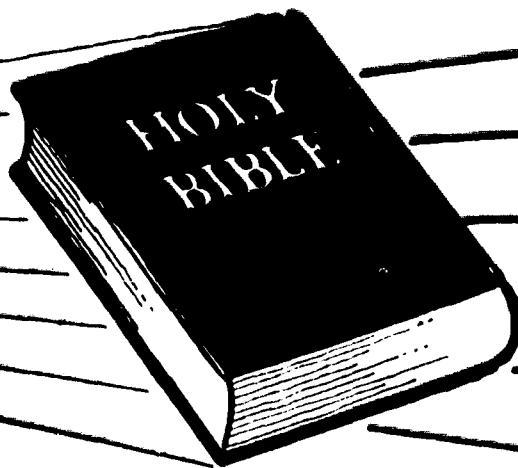

In the last year, circulation of Campus Life has jumped from 60,000 to 105,000, mostly among teen-agers. Accounts of similar boom growth came from numerous others.
Over-all, the Evangelistic Press Association includes 204 periodicals, whose circulation has grown more than a million in the past year to about 11.5 million.

Most of the more liberal religious journals and those of the larger mainline denominations, both Protestant and Roman Catholic, have suffered circulation drops in the last few years.
"It's the conservative, evangelical publications that are going strong and whose sales are gaining," said Leslie H. Stobbe, of Chicago, head of the Moody Press book division.
"People are fed up with uncertainty," he added. "They want publications that say, 'Thus saith the Lord.' And conservatives are saying it."

Her Day

— Mother's Day. The world voted a day in her honor and Heaven was glad. It is a meager tribute that we should pause once a year... the second Sunday in May... to do her honor. She gave you life and love but what have you given her? Life will not change her love nor will death conquer it. She is the soaring cloud of radiant rapture that lifts us to new attempts and the strength we need to see us through. Her God would be pleased to see her in church this Mother's Day... won't you take her to God's House?

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. You in the Church and the Church in you form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Irish Vote To Join Market

By COLIN FROST
Associated Press Writer
DUBLIN (AP) — Prime Minister Jack Lynch says the Irish people's overwhelming vote to join the Common Market strengthens his hand against the Irish Republican Army but the guerrillas vowed to fight on in Northern Ireland.

Lynch made his claim after a referendum Thursday produced 1,036,890 "yes" votes to 211,908 "nos" on the question whether Ireland should follow Britain into the European Economic Community.

"We have always had a mandate for dealing with the IRA, but this result emphasizes this mandate," said Lynch. "The people emphatically rejected the IRA and what it stands for."

Sinn Fein, the political arm of the guerrilla army, had campaigned against Irish membership in the European trade bloc. Its opposition reflected the nationalist fervor that also drives its war to reunite Northern Ireland with the republic.

The president of the IRA's Provisional wing, Rory O'Brady, contended the flop of the anti-market campaign did not mean defeat for the underground army but rather that Sinn Fein "is the only bulwark against the new imperialism."

"The struggle in Northern Ireland will be maintained," he said. "In the south we pledge ourselves to organize and lead our people in economic resistance to the consequences of Community policies."

Aides of Lynch had said a vote for Europe would be taken as a signal from the people for tough action against the IRA and its bases along the border with Northern Ireland.

British officials struggling to end the violence in the North contend that the IRA can be beaten only if Lynch acts against the gunmen who use the republic as a haven and a source of arms. Lynch himself said recently that some gesture was needed from the republic to meet the British government's attempt to cool the situation.

The violence continued in Northern Ireland without any letup.

A British soldier was killed by gunfire in Belfast Thursday, and two bombs wounded 39 people, none seriously.

Three more soldiers were wounded in a gun battle Thursday night in the Catholic district of Ballymurphy, which the IRA dominates. The army claimed one gunman was hit.

Soldiers and snipers in Londonderry traded fire in several areas but no casualties were reported.

Travelers Post 8-0 Victory

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers banged out 12 hits to back the pitching of Jackie Stripling and Rich Folkers and posted an 8-0 Texas League victory over the Memphis Blues Thursday night in Little Rock.

The victory snapped a two-game Traveler losing streak.

Stripling picked up the victory, his fifth of the season without a loss. The losing pitcher was Randy Sterling.

Stripling blasted a home run for the Travelers in the fourth inning.

In other Texas League contests, Alexandria whipped Shreveport 8-1, El Paso nipped San Antonio 7-6 and the Midland-Amarillo game was rained out.

In tonight's action, Arkansas is at Memphis, Alexandria is at Shreveport, San Antonio faces El Paso and Midland is at Amarillo.

Burton Finishes Film

BUDAPEST (AP) — Actor Richard Burton ended three months of film work here in the title role of Edward Dmytryk's "Bluebeard," the legendary wife-killer in modern setting, and flew to Rome today to join his wife Elizabeth Taylor.

"This was a family record— to have been away from each other for a full week, as the earlier longest was a bare two days," said the 47-year-old Burton.

DAR Luncheon

MARY JANE HENLEY, HELEN HATCH AND JAN MORGAN

Twelve members and six guests attended the luncheon meeting of the John Cain Chapter, DAR, Wednesday, May 10 at the Town and Country. The hostesses, Mrs. Paul Klipsch, Mrs. G.B. Bilberry, Mrs. Walter Keith and Miss Fern McClurkin, had decorated the speaker's table with red gladioli and small yellow chrysanthemums.

After the ritual led by the Regent, Mrs. Paul Klipsch, and the Chaplain, Mrs. C.B. Voss, the Pledge of Allegiance was repeated and the National Anthem was sung with Mrs. Helen Hatch at the piano. Mrs. Klipsch introduced a new member, Mrs. Cecil Bumpers, and the following guests, Mrs. Haskell Jones, Mrs. James Gary, Mrs. John W. House, Mrs. Paul Henley, Mrs. Paul Morgan and Mrs. Helen Hatch, President of the Friday Music Club.

"Stephen Collins Foster" was the subject of the program brought by members of the Friday Music Club, which is affiliated with the National Federation of Music Clubs. In tribute to him Mrs. Hatch gave a biographical sketch of this composer of so many deeply moving plantation melodies. Two have become official state songs: "Swanee River" in Florida and "My Old Kentucky Home" in Kentucky. Memorials to him are found in his birthplace of Pittsburg, Pa.; the New York Hall of Fame, where he is the only musician; a 200 foot 97 bell carillon in Florida; and a marble bust in the Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Paul Henley played the guitar and sang "Old Folks at Home" and "Camp Town Races." Mrs. Paul Morgan sang "Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair" and "Beautiful Dreamer," accompanied by Mrs. Hatch.

Mrs. Klipsch read the President General's Message, and National Defense Chairman Mrs. E.F. Formby urged a greater faith in God and support of the national government. Appreciation was given by Crossnore School in North Carolina, and recognition for achievement placed John Cain Chapter on the Gold Honor Roll for 1972.

Mansfield Returns From China Visit

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — "It is a hard-working, early-to-bed, early-to-rise society."

That's the way Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., described mainland China for his colleagues Thursday.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, and his Republican counterpart, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, have just returned from a 16-day visit in China.

"The cities are clean, orderly and safe," Mansfield said, "the shops well stocked with food, clothing and other consumer items; policemen are evident only for controlling traffic and very few carry weapons. Soldiers are rarely seen."

"The housing is of a subsistence type but is now sufficient to end the spectacle of millions of the homeless and dispossessed who in the past walked the tracks and roads or anchored their sam-pans in the rivers of China and lived out their lives in a space little larger than a rowboat."

"Crime, begging, drug addiction, alcoholism, delinquency are conspicuous in their absence. Personal integrity is scrupulous. In Canton, for example, a display case for lost-and-found articles in the lobby of the People's Hotel contained, among other items, a half-empty package of cigarettes and a pencil," he said.

Mansfield, making his first visit to mainland China in a quarter of a century, said a factory worker in Peking earns the equivalent of $22 a month and his wife works, making as much or more.

"That income is ample for a subsistence-plus existence because children are cared for free at a nursery or in public schools," Mansfield said. "Rent takes only 5 per cent of total income. Basic food prices are low and fixed. Medical care is free. Entertainment is cheap: admission to a movie is about 10 cents." Mansfield also reported that the rickshaws are gone and that bicycles and buses are the almost universal forms of transportation. He said China builds a few fine limousines for official purposes but private passenger cars are a rare sight.

"Production has been concentrated on such utilitarian vehicles as tractors, trucks and buses," he said. By way of assessing China today, Mansfield remarked that it is possible to judge a bottle as half full or half empty.

"If China is measured by some of our common yardsticks, whether they be highway mileage, the number of cars, television sets, kitchen gadgets, political parties, or newspaper editors, the bottle will be seen as half empty," he said.

"If China is viewed in the light of its own past, the bottle is half full and rapidly filling."

El Paso Squeezes by San Antonio

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
El Paso has squeezed by San Antonio 7-6 to cling to the Texas League's West Division lead while Memphis holds the East Division banner despite a miserable 8-0 loss to Arkansas.

Ron Downing hit a sharp drive to right field with two men on for the winning run as El Paso drove past San Antonio after the score was tied 5-5 going into the bottom of the fifth inning Thursday night.

San Antonio scored one run in the eighth and loaded the bases in the ninth but was unable to get home as Larry McDowell shut out three batters in a row.

In other league action, Alexandria defeated Shreveport 8-1 while rain forced the postponement of the Midland-Amarillo clash.

Hijacker Escapes With Money

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — The Eastern Air Lines hijacker who bailed out over Honduras with $303,000 in ransom apparently landed safely and escaped into the countryside.

The government said Thursday night that a parachute harness and jumpsuit believed discarded by the hijacker were found by government agents Wednesday on Mt. Sorocon, on the border of Atlántida and Yoro counties in northern Honduras.

Capt. Carlos Rene Sagastume, director of the National Investigation Department, said the parachute itself was probably carried off by poor farmers in the area and that he doubted the hijacker had left the country.

Residents told Sagastume's men they had seen a man with a back pack and small suitcase sitting on the ground counting money and using tissues to wipe sweat from his face and that he had disappeared into the jungle. Agents said they found used tissues in the area.

The residents also said the man's shoulder and hands were injured, but a search of hospitals and clinics in the area produced no information on him.

The hijacker, described by the Eastern crew as a Vietnam war veteran about 45 years old, hijacked the plane shortly after it took off from Allentown, Pa., last Friday morning on a flight to Miami. He collected the ransom from the airline in Washington, D.C., where he allowed the 48 passengers to get off. Then the pilot flew to New Orleans, but a mechanical failure developed, and the crew and hijacker switched to another plane.

The hijacker had said he wanted to go to Belize, capital of British Honduras. The plane did fly over British Honduras, apparently on orders of the hijacker, who had in his possession a gun, two bush knives, two crash helmets, food, drink, and cigarettes.

A $25,000 reward has been offered for information leading to the hijacker's capture.

Reissen Finds the Right Tonic

DALLAS (AP) — Marty Reissen thinks a night out with the boys just may be the tonic to carry him to the World Championship of Tennis title.

"I'm learning to control my nerves," said Reissen after he outlasted Cliff Drysdale 5-7, 4-6, 6-2, 7-5, 6-3 Wednesday night to advance to tonight's semifinals against favored Rod Laver.

"I've been staying out late and the later I stay out the better I seem to play," Reissen said. "It takes all the nervousness out."

While Reissen was playing better on sleepless nights, Arthur Ashe got 11 hours of winks and thrashed Holland's Tom Okker in straight sets 6-4, 6-1, 6-3 to set up a semifinal match tonight with defending champion Ken Rosewall of Australia.

Muskie Expects McGovern To Get Nomination

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The man once considered the front-runner for the Democratic presidential nomination—Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine—says he thinks George McGovern might get the nomination on the first ballot. But Muskie said Thursday he does not "at this moment" expect it to happen.

The Maine senator, who withdrew from the primary competition April 27, said Sen. McGovern could win the nomination on the first ballot if he carries the California primary June 6. A win by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in California would give Humphrey a major boost in his candidacy, Muskie said, but, because of McGovern's current delegate lead and Humphrey's absence from the New York primary on June 20, "The California primary gives Sen. McGovern a greater opportunity."

Muskie made his comments on the interview program "Thirty Minutes with..." by the National Public Affairs Center for Television.

In other political news Thursday, McGovern moved ahead of Humphrey in the race for delegates from Nebraska's primary. McGovern won the popularity part of that contest Tuesday but delegate selection votes have not yet been completely tabulated.

The latest vote totals showed 12 of the delegate front runners committed to McGovern with 10 to Humphrey.

Humphrey, meanwhile, appeared to be leading the delegate races in West Virginia, where he smashed Alabama Gov. George Wallace in a popularity contest Tuesday.

Scattered reports and light returns for delegate candidates showed 14 of the front runners committed to Humphrey with 7

Mrs. deGaulle Declines Invitation

PARIS (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II has expressed a desire to see Mrs. Charles de Gaulle during the British sovereign's visit to France next week, but Mrs. De Gaulle has declined.

Informants said Wednesday that Mrs. De Gaulle sent profound thanks to the queen, but stated she would prefer not to make an exception to her rule to remain in total retirement since the death of her husband.

Drivers Tell of 'Reign of Terror'

By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seven truck drivers who say they lost their jobs after refusing to take out unsafe trucks told reporters Thursday there is a "reign of terror" within the truckers' ranks because defective vehicles are common but men who complain often are fired.

The group appeared in support of a bill by Rep. Bob Eckhardt, D-Tex., to prohibit a company from firing a worker who refuses to follow an order if following that order would violate a federal motor carrier safety regulation.

Federal data for 41 states show the accident rate for trucks has been going up in recent years while the rate for automobiles has declined. In 1968, there were 4.69 fatal accidents per million truck vehicle miles but in 1970 there were 5.20 per million miles.

One of the men at the news conference Thursday was Chester Bragg, 51, a Quincy, Mass. driver with 26 years of road experience.

He said he was fired 15 months ago because he refused to take out a tandem tractor-trailer truck on an icy January day because the vehicle was notorious for locking its wheels on ice.

Clay Ferguson of Stoneville, N.C., said he was fired after he refused to drive his truck back to the company lot after it broke down on the road.

Rocco Notarangelo of Bristol, Conn., said he was fired after he refused to drive a truck without the mandatory fire extinguishers and flares.

to McGovern and 5 for Muskie. Nine of the front runners are uncommitted.

Neither Muskie nor McGovern entered the popularity part of the West Virginia primary.

Another presidential candidate dropped out of the primary battle Thursday when Rep. Wilbur Mills told a news conference he would be a compromise candidate at the convention.

Mills, D-Ark., had not fared well in the primary contests. He said he felt the convention would deadlock and "will have to look elsewhere than the three or four leading candidates for the presidential nominee."

In Frederick, Md., about 200 state troopers and Frederick police were called on to dis-

Charred Bodies Found

MONTEVIDEO (AP) — Three charred bodies were found early today aboard a British refrigerator ship that collided with an oil tanker in the Plate River estuary, and little or no hope was held for 80 missing persons.

It was feared that all 63 crewmen, 10 passengers and a pilot aboard the refrigerator ship Royston Grange had been trapped by the fire that broke out after the ship and the Liberian registered tanker Tienchee collided Thursday.

Nine of the tanker's 41 Chinese crewmen also were missing and presumed dead. The 32 others and the ship's Argentine pilot were rescued.

At first it was hoped that some of the crew and passengers had fled to the deep steel tunnel housing the propeller shaft, but rescue teams said they did not hear or see anything indicating survivors.

It was feared the victims either were asleep or fled into lower compartments when flames gushed over the ship and that they perished from heat and lack of oxygen.

Daring Pilot Downed by Enemy Fire

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — A daring pilot who once ate a peanut butter sandwich while making a parachute jump of 102,800 feet is missing after being shot down by enemy aircraft over North Vietnam.

Lt. Col. Joseph W. Kittinger Jr., went to Vietnam on his third tour of duty in May last year to "get a MIG," according to his mother, Mrs. Joseph W. Kittinger Sr., of Orlando.

Kittinger, 44, realized his goal March 2 when he shot down the 114th Russian-built MIG fighter plane destroyed by American pilots in Southeast Asia.

But on Thursday Kittinger's Phantom jet was shot down following an aerial duel only 17 days before he was to return to the United States for reassignment.

In the 1950s he was lauded in newspaper headlines as "the first man in space" when he rode a small gondola under a huge balloon to 96,000 feet on June 2, 1957.

The balloon was not designed to return the rider to earth, so Kittinger came back by parachute.

The World Book Encyclopedia's list of balloon altitude records credits Kittinger with making a record 102,800-foot jump on Aug. 16, 1960.

During the 4½-minute, 16-mile free fall before his parachute opened, Kittinger calmly munched on a peanut butter sandwich while watching the earth rush up at him at 614 miles per hour.

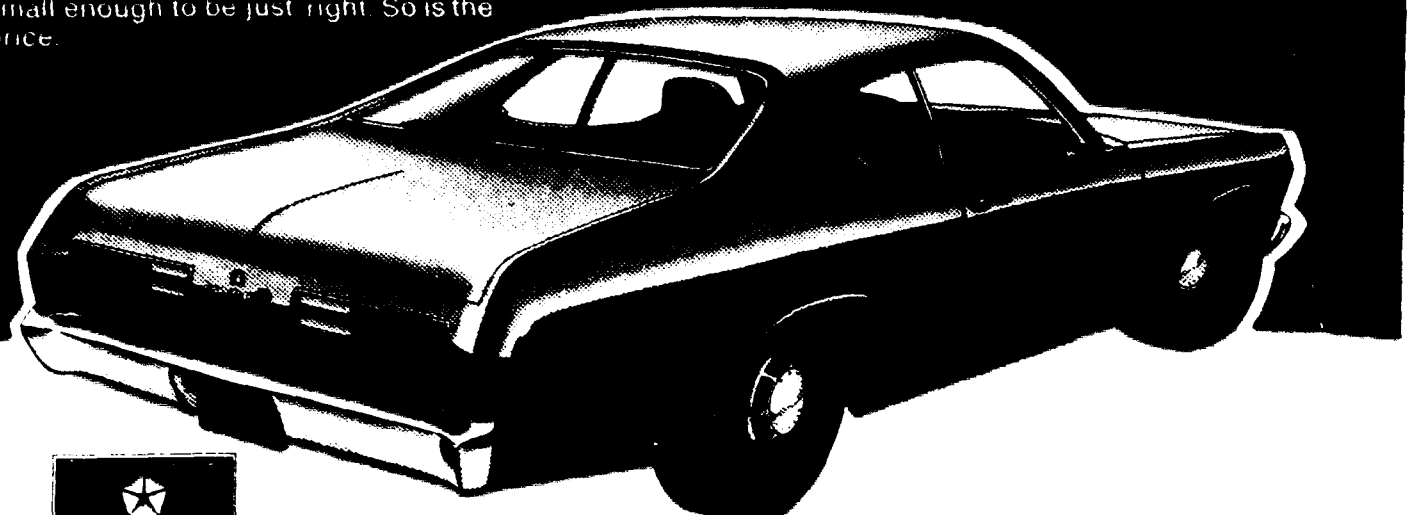

His balloon record was later superseded.
